

Prayer Poetry Prompt

Rumi says that “the best form of prayer is to say whatever your painted heart chooses.”

List things you are thankful for, things you wish for.
Use the poetic form to say what your heart longs for;
to say what you appreciate;

Perhaps you could begin with something like; “Tonight I bow down before ...”